

Business Analyst_Digital

Responsibilities:

- Participation and control, together with business units, as well as with developers in the formulation of requirements for the project of Mobile banking and after the project for other such requests from business units;
- The formalization of business processes and algorithms;
- Writing of business and functional(technical) requirements, setting targets for developers;
- Coordination and information support of the work of the development team and the business team;
- Testing and acceptance of the developed functionality;
- Organization of the process of acceptance by the customer, consultation and training of users;
- Development of guidelines for the implemented functionality;
- Monitoring tasks of the implementation process.

Required skills and qualifications:

- Experience in the banking / financial sector;
- Experience in Projects on IT software implementation projects (online/self service system)
- Knowledge about the concept of User Interface/User Experience Design.
- Good knowledge of English;
- Knowledge of Azerbaijan and Russian languages at a good level;
- Higher education (preferably economics / mathematics or engineering);
- Knowledge of MS-Office programs (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Visio);
- Availability of analytical skills;
- Attention to detail any kind;
- Willingness to learn and try new technologies;
- Perseverance and responsibility, ability to carry out routine work;

Interested candidates are requested to send their resume (CV) to cv@accessbank.az. Please indicate the job title in the subject line!